

Week 5

Clifton Cobras narrowly kept up their unbeaten record in division 3 after a narrow 6-4 victory at Piranha H with Jim Steel taking a starring role, he won all his singles and combined with Russ Drayton for the doubles, Drayton also scored twice losing to Matt Hicks who scored 2 for Piranha. Scorpions E remain favourites for promotion and in Dan Elvidge they have unearthed another good youngster, he claimed a very good hat trick including the prize scalp of Francis Lovell in his teams 7-3 victory at home to Clifton Rattlers, he was well supported by Ryan Blakemore and Jake Crosby who both claimed 2 wins. Piranha I had a good 8-2 win at Scorpions F with Doug Stone taking all 3, youngsters Chris and Alex Ward will have been pleased to win 2 sets each losing to Chris Burd.

In division 1 champions JSM were surprisingly held to a 5-5 draw at Phoenix A despite a Steve Needham maximum, Pete Morgan added 2 sets losing to Mick Jarvis but Jim Jeickles had a blank night losing to Jarvis, Stuart Element and Mick Bell. Scorpions A top the table and they had an 8-2 home win over Piranha D with hat tricks for Stephen Arliss and Paul Johnson, the doubles and a Patrick Feng victory over Mark Johnson scoring for Piranha. Piranha A comfortably beat Phoenix B 8-2 with James Brown unbeaten, for Phoenix David Gascoyne did beat Graham Bailey and had a set conceded by Andrea Baldi. Robert Swift claimed a good pair of wins in Scorpions B 8-2 victory against 2 man Piranha E, Chris Johnson losing to Julie Beaumont and Vincent Loh to Frazer Stone. Piranha B had a strong line up with Rick Harris, Terry Curran and Tony Lingard all unbeaten in their 10-0 defeat of Phoenix C. LSM A had a 10-0 walkover against Piranha C.

Division 2 saw Maltby inflict a first defeat of the season on Phoenix D 6-4 Keith Lund and Eric Green both scored twice for Maltby but neither could inflict a first defeat of the season on John Hallgarth, the doubles and one for Pete Beevor completed the scoring for Maltby. Matches between LSM B and C are always lively and vocal encounters the latest one carried on that tradition, the B team were indebted to a Dave Sayner maximum but the C team had Geoff Sanderson and Steve Forster claiming 2 singles each and the doubles to recover from 4-1 down to claim a very good 5-5 draw. Scorpions D are yet to earn a point this season but they came very close before going down 6-4 to Stag A, Mick Garrett took all 3 and combined for the doubles with Alan Oakley who scored his teams other sets, Scott Hollowood claimed a very good win over Oakley and seems to have stepped up to this level very well. Phoenix E couldn't get a team to play at Dolcliffe and conceded the match.
